19. TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

19.1 If settlement is being offered, it can be because of below scenarios after expiry of Manufacturer Warranty Period.

- a) Beyond Economic Repair (BER): The repair estimate (Cost of Repair estimate) is exceeding 80% of Coverage value
- b) Device is non-repairable (due to any reason)
- c) Cost of repair is more than balance coverage value
- d) Parts not available (PNA): Spare Part(s) are unavailable, reasons of which are beyond OneAssist's control

19.2 The settlement Benefit for (a), (b) & (c) cases will be lower of the below:

19.2.1 Balance Coverage value

19.2.2 Market Operating Price (MoP = Current Market value, determined by referring to price of the respective product on leading online/Offline Players portals, at OneAssist's discretion) less applicable deductible and depreciation (if any)

19.3 The Settlement Benefit for (c) PNA cases will lower of the below:

19.3.1 Repair Estimate Amount

19.3.2 Settlement as per clause 19.2

19.4 OneAssist may choose to provide a replacement Product or redeemable voucher equivalent to the settlement amount calculated under this amount, at its own discretion. The replacement Product may not be new in nature and might differ in the specifications compared to the original covered appliance.

If we compensate as per above (except 19.3.1), all our obligations under this Plan will be deemed fulfilled and there will no longer be any services available under the plan.

In case of service request settlement other than repair, OneAssist will retain the un-repaired device and provide only settlement. Customer can choose either to get the un-repaired device or settlement and in no case, will be provided with both.
